

Alberta Community Justice Awards – Nominate Albertans who make our communities safer!

The Alberta Community Justice Awards are awarded every year to people in communities who go the extra mile to prevent and address crime in Alberta. The following may be nominated: individuals, youth justice committees, crime prevention organizations, victim services, restorative justice organizations, and police.

Nominations will be reviewed and assessed based on the following criteria:

- Leadership – demonstrating exceptional leadership ability in the area of local concern
- Innovation – demonstrating innovative solutions or approaches in their work
- Service enhancement – taking deliberate and logical steps to enhance the services they currently provide
- Community mobilization – effectively mobilizing the broader community to address issues of local concern
- Partnerships and collaboration – building connections and effective partnerships with agencies and parallel organizations in the community
